

Stelios Anastasiadis

Business Developer - Qhs24 Luxury Real Estate

With academical background in BSc Accounting & Finance and MSc in Real Estate Management & Development. Take an active part the last 5 years in Family Business as 3rd generation. Continuing the activities of the company in real estate services. As business developer of QHS24 LUXURY REAL ESTATE is a licensed real estate broker. Which is responsible about the running of the business in Greece and the expand of the portfolio in other European countries.

Except the brokerage, he is a real estate appraiser for property and land valuation, also managed real estate portfolios, and served market researches for investments. He believes in depth about sustainability and the regulations of ESG criteria, could be affect the way of real estate works. For this reason, he served in companies and individual clients, special services about these specific sectors of properties. Well-connected and established with other professional of the sector like developers, funds, investors, brokers, consultants, architects & engineers in Europe & U.S.

LUXURY REAL ESTATE