

Andrew Demetriou

Partner at Spector Constant & Williams

Andrew has broad experience for all types of real estate transactions acting for banks, developers, investors, landlords, tenants, and high net-worth individuals in connection with residential and commercial acquisitions, disposals, and developments.

Andrew has a particular expertise in development and assists on all aspects, from acquisition, development finance and subsequent construction of the developments and sale of the units. He also has a wide experience acting for banks and bridging finance companies for development finance transactions.

Clients value Andrew's efficient, practical, and commercial advice as well as the personalised service which he offers to all.

