

Stelios Havatzias

Chief of Legal & Head of Corporate Services at Wise Wolves Group

Stelios Havatzias is the Chief Legal Officer at Wise Wolves Group, which encompasses a licensed investment firm, licensed payment services provider, licensed fiduciary and trust services provider, and licensed digital assets service provider, all regulated within the EU. The Group consists of over 80 professionals, offering expertise in legal, payment, investment, trust, corporate, and fiduciary management services. Among the Group's diverse clientele are individuals, family offices, Cypriot and foreign companies, as well as venture and investment funds.

As the Head of Wise Wolves Capital and with 15 years of experience in property transactions and corporate law, Stelios plays a crucial role in developing legal strategies that protect and advance clients' interests. In his current role, he oversees the Group's comprehensive legal services, delivering strategic support across various sectors. He is highly experienced in drafting, reviewing, and negotiating a broad spectrum of commercial agreements, covering areas such as real estate, finance, and corporate governance.

Stelios holds advanced CySEC certification and AML certification, and he is a member of the Cyprus Bar Association. He also holds a Bachelor's degree in Law from the University of East Anglia. His extensive expertise and leadership ensure that clients benefit from a robust and dynamic legal framework tailored to their needs.

